SPORTS

About to be leveled after a short gain by a Tiffin Calvert player, is fullback Brian Chapman.

The 1978 FHS varsity football team fought its way to a 5-4-1 record, bettering last year's mark of 5-5. Coach Dick Kidwell's teams are well known for their defensive prowess, and this 1978 squad was no exception.

The season started against arch-rival Bowling Green. The Redmen's only touchdown came late in the third quarter, when quarterback Joe Hoover hit Phil Sallisbury with a seven yard scoring pass. That was all that was needed, however, as the defense held Bowling Green to just 15 yards total offense. In this game the Fostoria defense showed its consistent dominance over the FHS offense, a trait that persisted throughout the season.

Sophomore Lowell Harris breaks into the secondary before running into a Bedford safety.

Football team achieves winning season

Fostoria's next opponent was the Titans from Ottawa Glandorf. The defense played well, but the offense couldn't get going and turned the ball over deep in their own territory. These errors proved costly as FHS went down to defeat 19-13.

The Redmen got moving against Tiffin Columbian, blasting the Tornadoes by a 27-14 count. But just as soon as the offense turned sweet, it went sour again. Fumbles and mental mistakes proved costly to the Redmen as Tiffin Calvert destroyed them 27-6. Fumbles and mental mistakes proved costly to the Redmen in week number four.

1 — The FHS offensive line is poised, ready to push back the opponent.

2 — VARSITY FOOTBALL:

Fostoria now moved into the heart of their GLL schedule as the next 5 out of 6 games were league matches. Fostoria next played once beaten Napoleon, who had just started their first year in the GLL. The Redmen baptized the newcomer by sending them home beaten, 7-6. In this game Fostoria allowed Napoleon to score in the first quarter, but held them scoreless the rest of the way to bring Fostoria's record to 3-2.

Homecoming dawned the next week, as Fostoria played host to tough Lima Shawnee. In another defensive battle, the Redmen pulled it out with Clayton Moore's 35 yard field goal.

Finding themselves in a tie for first, FHS now prepared to do battle with Port Clinton.

- 1 — Safetyman John Wedge looks on as his teammates surround a Bedford player.
- 2 — Fostoria players celebrate as junior tailback Billy Lawson scores.
- 3 — Kickoff-returner Joey Johnson receives some last minute instructions from Coach Kidwell.

Freshmen gain needed game experience

Both teams fought up and down the field, but in the end nothing was settled as the game ended in a 6-6 deadlock.

The FHS defense performed brilliantly in a 23-0 whitewashing of Sylvania Northview, as they tuned-up for the crucial game with league-leader Oregon Clay.

Some hard hitting resulted in the match-up, but Clay pulled it out with late scores to beat the Redmen 23-9.

Hopes of a league championship further diminished when the Redmen were beaten 39-29 by Bedford. They finished the season with a 5-4-1 record.

1 — Quarterback Joe Hoover sets to pass downfield, as Tiffin Calvert defenders close in.

2 — Coach Richardson looks on despairingly as his team is defeated.

3 — FRESHMEN FOOTBALL:

State meet highlights harrier's season

The 1978 cross country team posted a fine 7-3 dual and tri-meet record, as they accepted the challenge and made the trip to Columbus for the second year in a row.

Hometown rival Saint Wendelin was once again the opening opposition for the Redmen. But the Mohawks, along with visiting Sylvania Northview, went back home defeated. Tiffin Columbian was next in line, but they stopped the Redmen's winning streak at two, beating FHS 35-20.

Next, the Redmen won three in a row over Oregon Clay, Port Clinton, and Upper Sandusky before losing a close one to league foe Napoleon, 28-27. The harriers next blasted Bedford, but Clyde ambushed them, bringing the team's mark to 7-3.

The team's effort faltered until the sectionals, which they won. They qualified for another trip to the state, as they finished third at districts. The Redmen put in a fine showing there, as they placed 12th out of the 17 best teams in the state. Senior Chuck Pullom led the Redmen as he finished 17th. For this and other numerous accomplishments throughout the year, Pullom was selected by his teammates as MVP.

Even with the loss of this year's seniors, next year's team should be promising with the return of 5 lettermen.

1 — 1978 CROSS COUNTRY:

(row 1) Craig Baldwin, Nate Lynch, Chuck Pullom, Chris Reinhard, Stan Cohen, Tom Fellers, Mike Etzinger, Coach Carl Fisher. (row 2) Bruce Barringer, John Leal, Chuck Loomis, Scott Shumaker, Lee Bowman, Jim Harger, Jeff Joseph, Ivan Leavitt, John Zoll, Gordon Grey, Jim Bowman, Mark Custer.

2 — Senior Chris Reinhard makes the turn and starts his second mile.

3 — Lori Boff and Mike Etzinger anxiously await the results in Columbus.

4 — Mike Etzinger, Nate Lynch, and Jim Harger make the drive for home.

5 — Co-captain Stan Cohen reaches back for a little extra as he makes the turn.

6 — Chuck Pullom strides powerfully along the course.

Reserves repeat as league champions

Equally impressive was the junior varsity as they finished 5-1 in duel and tri-meets. The Redmen started out by winning their first three meets, beating Oregon Clay, Port Clinton, and Upper Sandusky. Napoleon next gave the harriers their only loss of the year as they beat FHS, 30-29.

Next the team beat Bedford and Clyde quite convincingly to finish the year at 5-1.

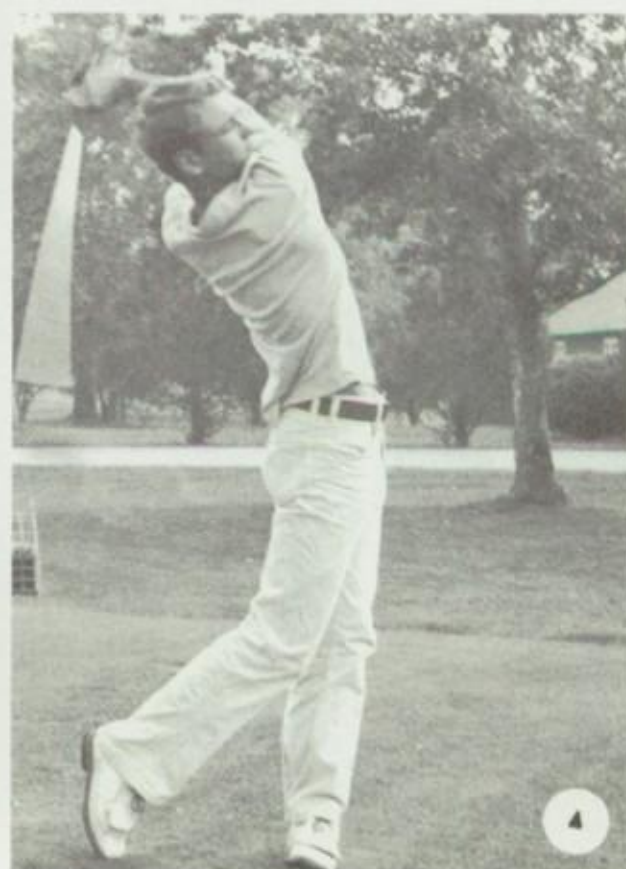

The Redmen avenged the loss to Napoleon by defeating them for the GLL title. This now makes the third year in a row that the junior varsity has won the GLL. The team also finished first in the Findlay and Tiffin Invitationals and second at the Shawnee Invitational.

This year's reserves should help next year's varsity in its quest to make a third trip to Columbus.

- 1 — Nate Lynch pours it on at the finish line.
2 — Mike Etzinger pushes hard to finish 31st at the State Meet in Columbus.
3 — Craig Baldwin passes an unidentified Clyde runner.

Golfers drive to disappointing season

Fostoria High's varsity golf team finished with a disappointing 2-12 record.

Leading the Redmen were co-captains Doug Dennison and Bob Lewe, as they averaged 84 and 86 strokes respectively.

Dennison was voted by his teammates as MVP, and he also took home the Booster Award. Receiving second team ALL-GLL honors, and winning the Rotary Scholastic Award was Bob Lewe.

Other members of the team and their averages were: seniors, Jon Brough, 92; Jack Chalfin, 94; junior, Dale Storrer, 90; sophomores, Tim Drake, 99; Jack Horner, 97; and Bob Russell with a 99.

With only one letterman returning next year, Coach Wilch and the putters will have their work cut out for them.

1 — Senior co-captain Bob Lewe garnered a spot on the ALL-GLL team.

2 — VARSITY GOLF: Randy Gerritsen, Jack Chalfin, Doug Dennison, Jon Brough, Dale Storrer, and Bob Lewe.

3 — RESERVE GOLF: Mark Dunn, Greg Rosales, Jack Horner, Bob Russell, Tim Drake, and Stuart Murray.

4 — Driving his way to a spot on AA Sectional team is senior Doug Dennison.

Pete Schmidt named AD of the year

This year the Fall Sports Banquet was highlighted by the cross country and football teams. Chuck Pullom received the Most Valuable Player and Booster Awards, while Chris Reinhard won the Rotary Club Scholastic Award in cross country.

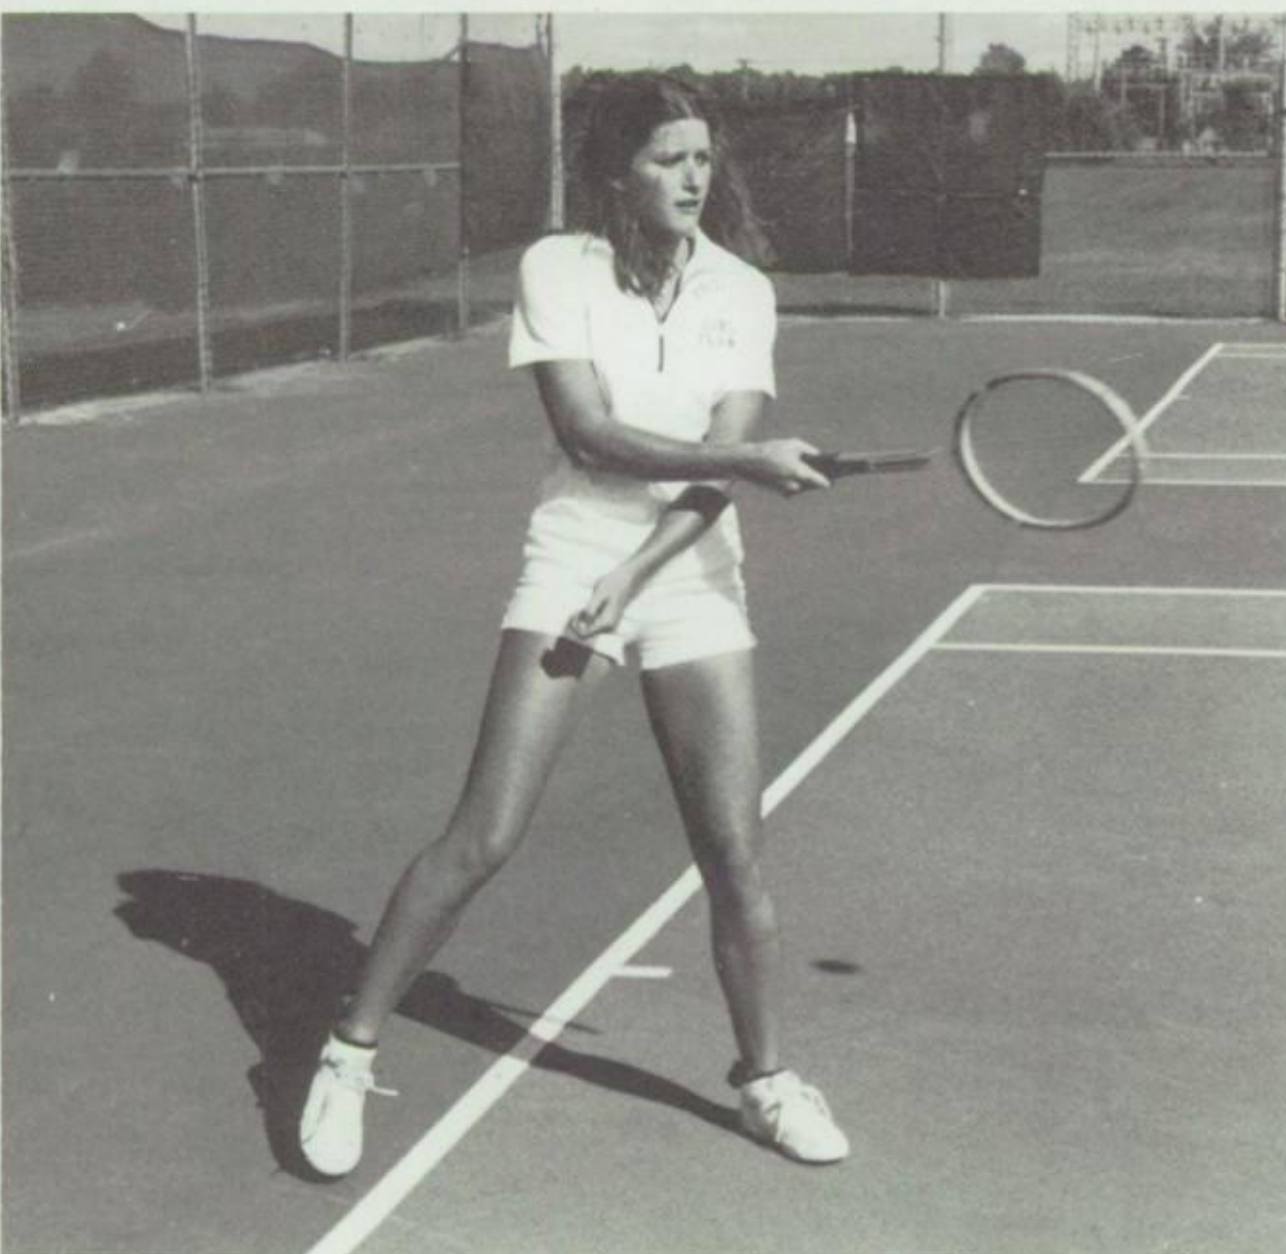

In football, Ray Foster was named Most Valuable Player by his teammates, and Tim Stahl took home the Booster Award. Tim Butcher was presented with the Carlos Jackson Award, while the Scholastic Award went to John Wedge.

Perhaps the biggest award of the night went to our athletic director Pete Schmidt, as he was named Athletic Director of the Year in the state of Ohio.

- 1 — Receiving his MVP Award, from the VFW representative, is senior Ray Foster.
- 2 — Awarded for his scholastic achievement in the classroom is John Wedge.
- 3 — Recognized as the best athletic director in the state of Ohio is Pete Schmidt.
- 4 — Receiving his scholastic award from principal Dean Miller, is senior Chris Reinhard.

Girls' tennis struggles through season

Rain and altogether bad weather hindered the girls' tennis team as they posted a 3-7 record.

This year Jackie Elsea and Barb Blose held the first two singles spots. During the sectionals, however, Jackie and Meg Eynon held down the first two singles spots. They advanced past the first round along with the doubles teams of Kelly Conrad and Linda Tong, and Cami Gray and Barb Blose; but all were defeated in the second round.

This year was a rebuilding one as most of the team was composed of juniors and sophomores. The lone senior player this year was Cami Gray. With the return of several lettermen and many talented reserves, Fostoria should be very competitive.

1 — FHS GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM:

(front row) Amy Fast, Kathy Scharlach, Jenni Flemming, Julie Keiffer, Linda Tong, Heather Cameron, Nancy Bartunek. (back row) Coleen Vogel, Meg Eynon, Missy Opperman, Jackie Elsea, Barb Blose, Cami Gray, Kelly Conrad, Coach Janet Dalrymple.

2 — Jackie Elsea prepares to stroke a cross court forehand.

3 — Hitting the ball over the net from the baseline is senior Cami Gray.

Volleyball team seesaws through season

- 1 — VARSITY VOLLEYBALL:
 (row 1) Coach Anna Simcox, Julie Kelly. (row 2) Laurie Baldwin, Kim Fant, Lynette Pryor, Carol Smith. (row 3) Tina Deuble, Peggy Flechtner, Lisa Rinehart, Beth Bulkowski, Laurie Deerwester.
- 2 — RESERVE TEAM:
 (left side) Sonia Temme, Jeri Warman, Gail Daugherty, Sheila Burk, Denise Nye, Carol Rupert. (right side) Sandy Guernsey, Sheryl Birkmire, Nancy Wilch, Carla Myers, Sherry Warman. (middle) Jean Foust, Coach Corrine Cahlik.

- 3 — Nancy Wilch waits for the ball to come down.
 4 — Coach Anna Simcox discusses the plan for the crucial third game.
 5 — Kim Fant charges the net as Tina Deuble sets the ball.
 6 — Sending the ball over the net is senior Peggy Flechtner.
 7 — Lisa Rinehart falls to her knees to make a save.

Under new head coach Anna Simcox, the FHS girls' volleyball team seesawed to a 7-8 record. Teamwork was the key in this year of rebuilding for the team, as they lost four seniors to graduation. The girls relied heavily upon themselves as they did not possess a star player that they could turn to.

As the result of hard work put in by the girls, three players were recognized with league honors. Lisa Rinehart was awarded a spot on the first team, while Tina Deuble and Laurie Deerwester received second team and honorable mention honors, respectively.

Even with the loss of three seniors this year, next season looks to be one of improvement as a fine bunch of reserves advance to varsity status.

Inexperience, turnovers plague Redmen

VARSITY BASKETBALL:

The 1978-79 varsity basketball team, under the direction of head coach Jim Bailey, posted a dismal 4-16 record.

Inconsistency, inexperience, and turnovers plagued the Redmen throughout the year. These problems, coupled with mental mistakes caused the team to lose many close games. Often the Redmen were in a position to win, but let victory slip through their hands in the last moments of the game.

The roundballer's first game with Fremont Ross set the tone for the rest of the year. In this matchup the Redmen, though trailing, hung close for most of the game. The team staged a comeback in the last quarter, only to lose in the final seconds of play. This behavior started a trend that lasted for the first twelve games.

1 — Scott Nye anxiously awaits a pass from teammate, Mike Naus.

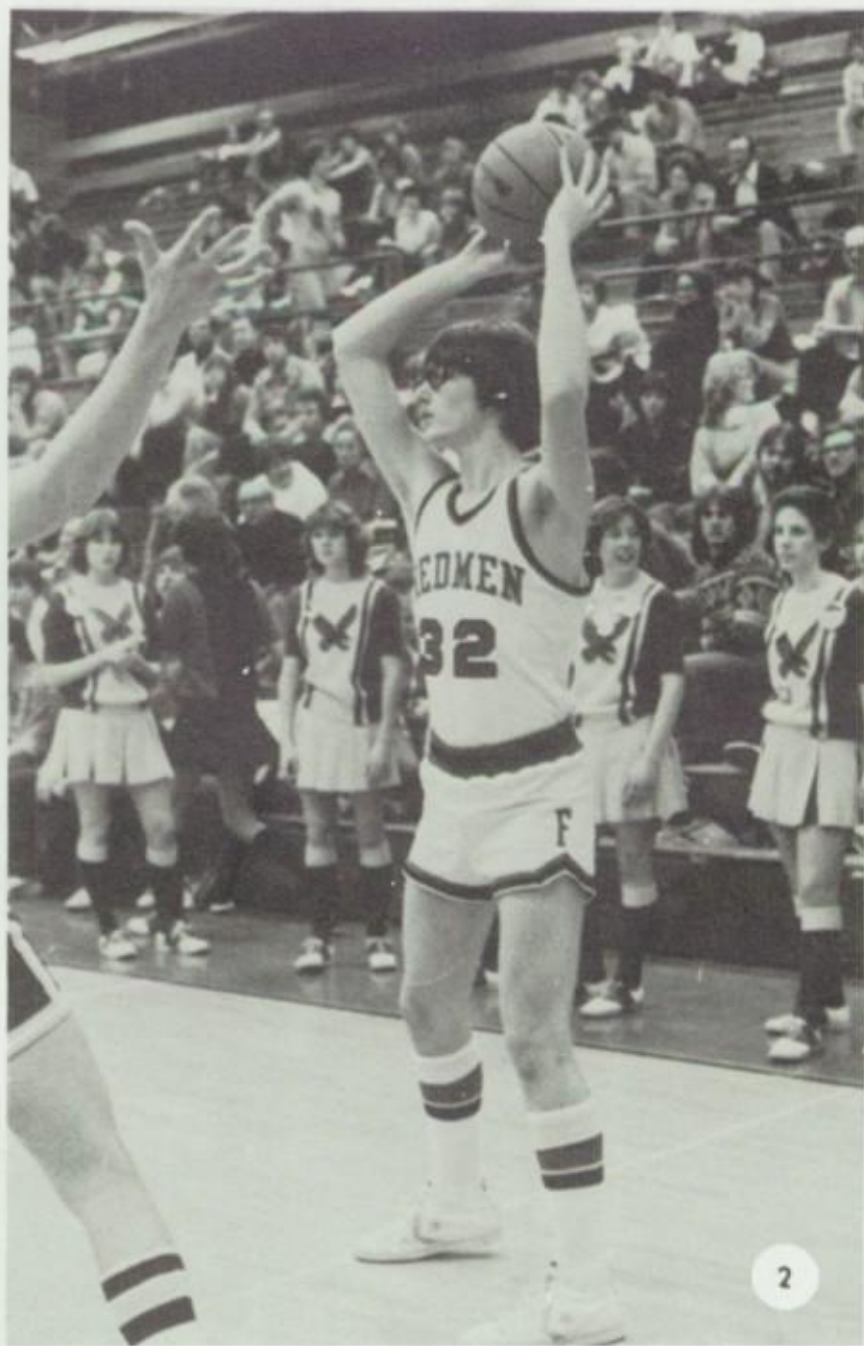

The Redmen found the poise that they had been lacking since the beginning of the season, as they nipped Lakota 53-51 for their elusive first win. FHS was down by as much as 14 points before making a furious and successful comeback in the waning moments. In this game, Fostoria's defense played perhaps its finest game of the season, forcing Lakota into numerous turnovers.

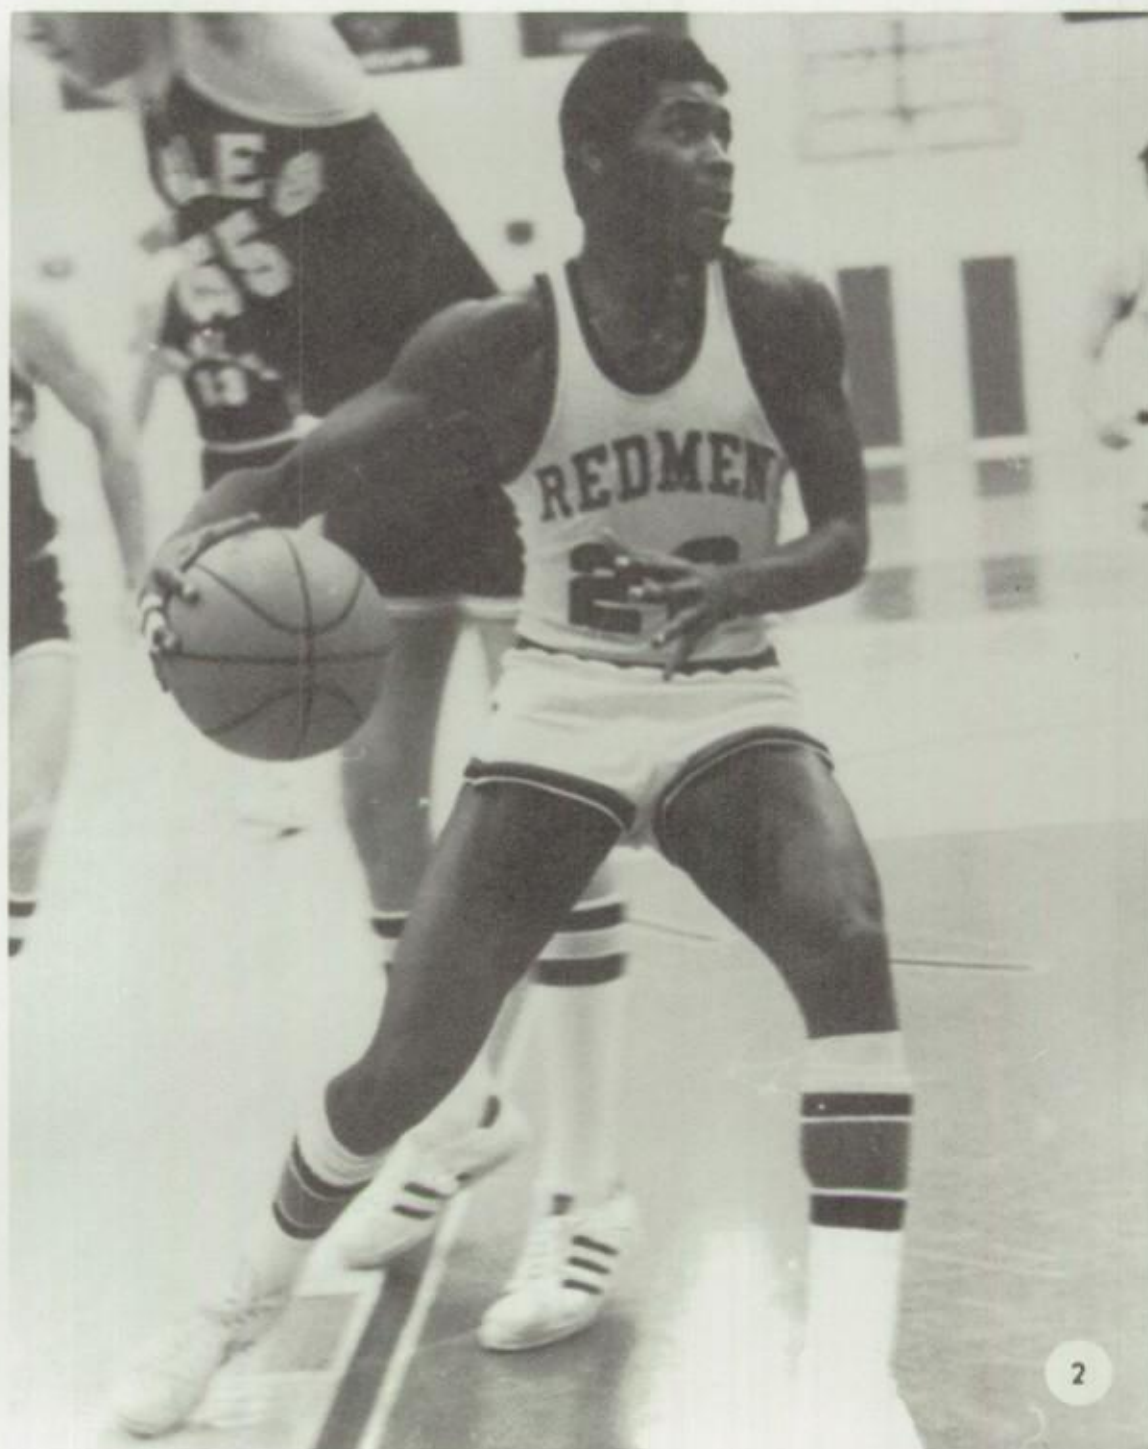

FHS split the next two out of four games by blasting Eastwood 58-44, and by sneaking by Elmwood 60-58, in double overtime.

Fostoria ended the season on a sour note, as they lost to Sylvania Northview 53-35, finishing the regular season 3-15.

- 1 — Dan Burk stops a Bedford player from driving down the baseline.
- 2 — Studying the opponent's defense for a possible opening is Mike Naus.
- 3 — Tracy Spencer lets fly with a shot over Delta's zone.
- 4 — Coach Jim Bailey discusses fourth quarter strategy.

FHS basketball has disappointing season

- 1 — Steadying himself for a foul shot is Scott Nye.
2 — Senior Joe Browning drives by a Clay player for an apparent two points.
3 — Making a break for the basket is junior Nate Lynch.
4 — Jeff Latham drives in for the shot.

"Our record was very deceptive," said coach Carl Fisher of the Fostoria reserve basketball team. "We should have won more games than we did." The Fostoria junior-varsity squad finished the season with a 5-13 record. The team was a tough competitor on numerous occasions, losing approximately six games in the final moments of play.

- 1 — Mike Naus lets loose with a shot over the outstretched arm of a Clay player.
- 2 — Trying to break loose for the inbounds pass is junior Joe Urquhart.
- 3 — Nate Lynch observes several players as they scramble for a loose ball.
- 4 — Attempting to trap the opponent are Scott Nye and Joe Browning.

Reserves offer hope for next season

The reserve team's depth, which was their strongest feature, was weakened by the seemingly endless number of turnovers and injuries. They played thirteen AAA schools, and with the exception of the Port Clinton game, provided stiff competition for their opponents.

Coach Fisher said, "If the players of the reserve team work hard over the summer vacation, I feel they will benefit the varsity program in the next two years."

- 1 — Trying to muscle up a shot is freshman Jeff Joseph.
2 — Warming up before the game is an important aspect.

RESERVE BASKETBALL:

(row 1) Jeff Warman, Rick Brown, Ray Uballe, Joe Johnson, Jeff Joseph, Bob Russell, Bob Fittro, (row 2) Don Garbe, Dan Boff, Chuck Loomis, Brian Barringer, Mike Grine, Brian Searles, Tim Drake, Bruce Barringer, Coach Carl Fisher.

1 — Setting up for a shot is sophomore Mike Grine.
2 — Going up for a runaway layup is Ray Uballe.
3 — Running for a loose ball is sophomore Brian Barringer.

Battered freshmen hope for better season.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL:

The loss of many experienced players created many problems for this year's squad of girls' basketball as they ended the season 1-11. As expected much of the year was spent rebuilding and developing team cohesiveness.

Their solitary win was against the Lakota Raiders. In this game the lead changed hands many times before Fostoria prevailed 37-35. Laurie Deerwester and Jeri Warman led the girls' offensive splurge in the final moments of the game. This was perhaps the girls' finest game of the year, as they played with intensity and determination.

Providing the scoring punch for the girls throughout the year were Michelle Lindsay and Lisa Rinehart. Lindsay also led the team in rebounding and was closely followed by Peggy Flechtner.

1 — GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL:
(row 1) Laurie Deerwester, Tina Deuble, Denise Nye, Jean Foust, LuAnn Dyer, (row 2) Peggy Flechtner, Lisa Rinehart, Michelle Lindsay, Sheryl Birkmire, (row 3) Ms. Corrine Cahlik, Jeri Warman, Yvette Anez, Miss Marsha Biller.
2 — LuAnn Lambright and Tracy Longacre, along with the rest of the team, warm up for the game.

Girls struggle through tough season

- 1 — Peggy Flechtner was a big plus for the team under the boards.
- 2 — Named to the District 7 All-Star squad is Lisa Rinehart.
- 3 — Michelle Lindsay charges the ball upcourt.
- 4 — Denise Nye pulls up for a short jumper.

Reserves look forward to next season

The girls' reserve squad suffered through a 2-10 season, under Coach Marsha Biller.

Sandy Guernsey and LuAnn Lambright led the squad in scoring as the girls spent most of the year learning the rules and techniques of the game.

1 — GIRLS' BASKETBALL:

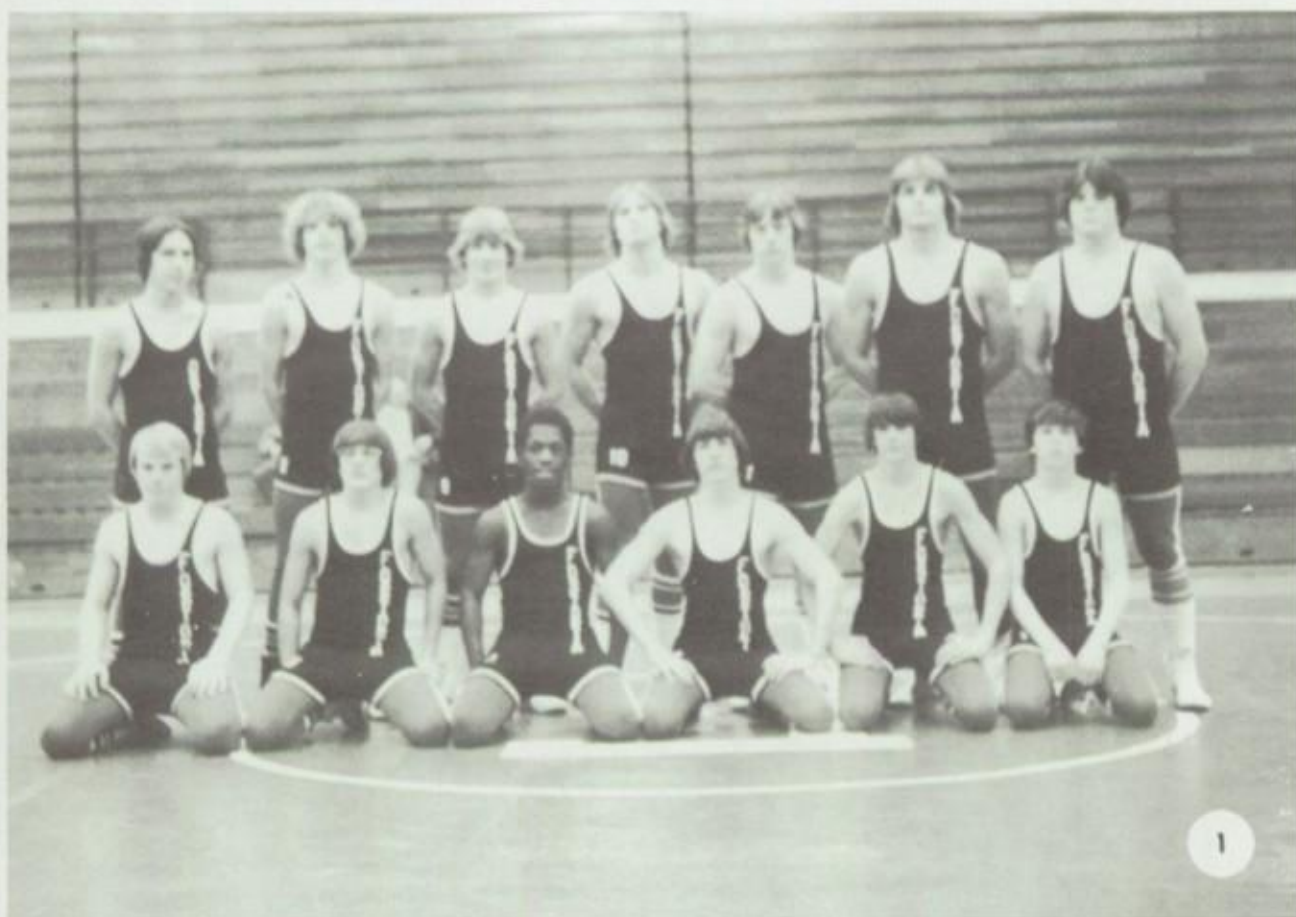

(row 1) LuAnn Dyer, Denise Nye, Amy Richards, Luann Lambright, (row 2) Tracy Longacre, Lynda McCarley, Martha Tolento, Kim Stearns, (row 3) Coach Corrine Cahlik, Gail Daugherty, Linda Rosales, Sheryl Birkmire, Sandy Guernsey, Julie Kelley, Coach Marsha Biller.

2 — Martha Tolento starts her move to the basket.

3 — Talking over pre-game strategy with her team is Marsha Biller.

4 — Sheryl Birkmire led the reserves in rebounding and scoring.

FHS wrestlers grapple to .500 mark

Varsity Wrestling:

(row 1) John Marshall, Jim Bowman, Cal Parks, Bill Bowman, Gordon Gray, Scott George,
(row 2) John Knox, Jim McIntyre, Steve Lehmann, Curt Reinhard, Tim Lee, Brian Chapman, Josh Goddard.

1 — Bill Bowman defeats his opponent in his second outing.

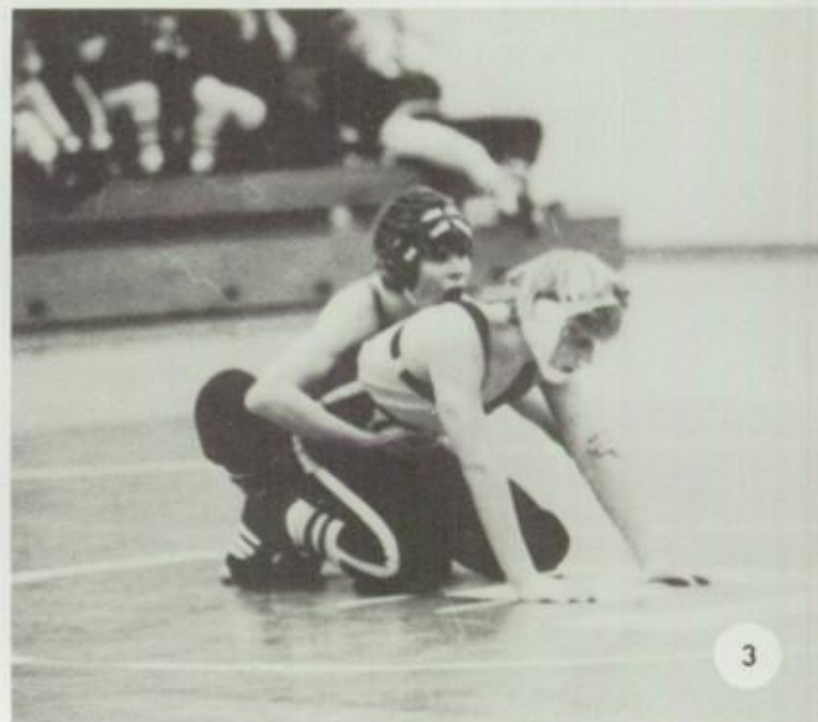

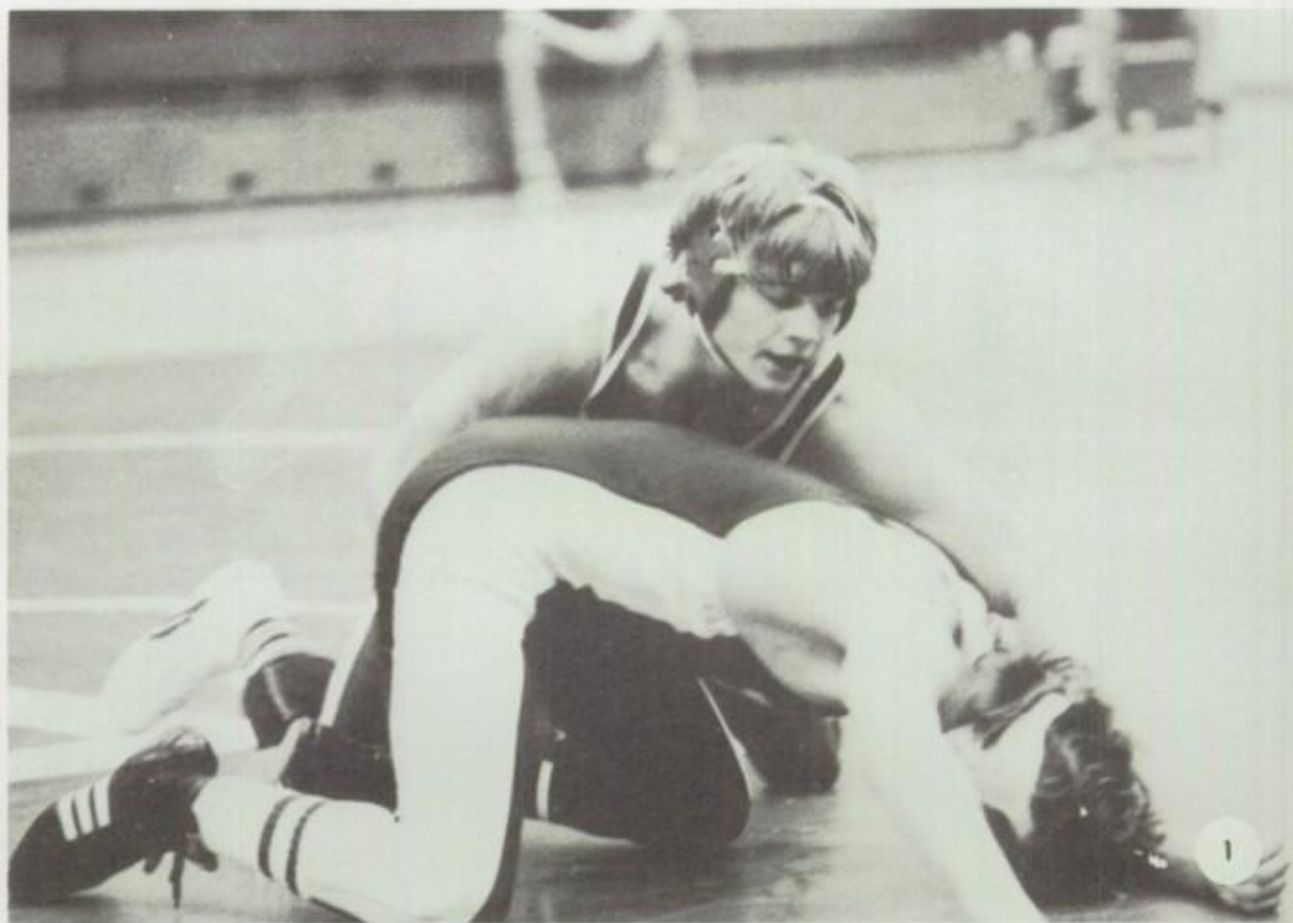

The FHS varsity wrestling squad fought its way to a 5-5 season against top-notch competition.

The Redmen opened the season slowly as they dropped their first three out of four matches. They quickly regrouped to win the next four out of five matches, bringing their record to 5-4. In this stretch Fostoria was victorious over the always tough Arcadia Redskins and the Oregon Clay Eagles. Hopes for a winning season were dashed as they lost to once beaten Sycamore Mohawk, 37-23.

The grapplers entered the GLL tournament with hopes of placing in the top three. By finishing third, this hope was realized as Bill Bowman and Brian Chapman were crowned individual champions.

Five wrestlers achieved outstanding records this season. Seniors Cal Parks, (12-2) and Curtis Reinhard (12-1) along with heavyweight Josh Goddard (12-2), helped lead the team throughout the year. Bill Bowman and Brian Chapman recorded perfect (14-0) marks as they led the team in victories.

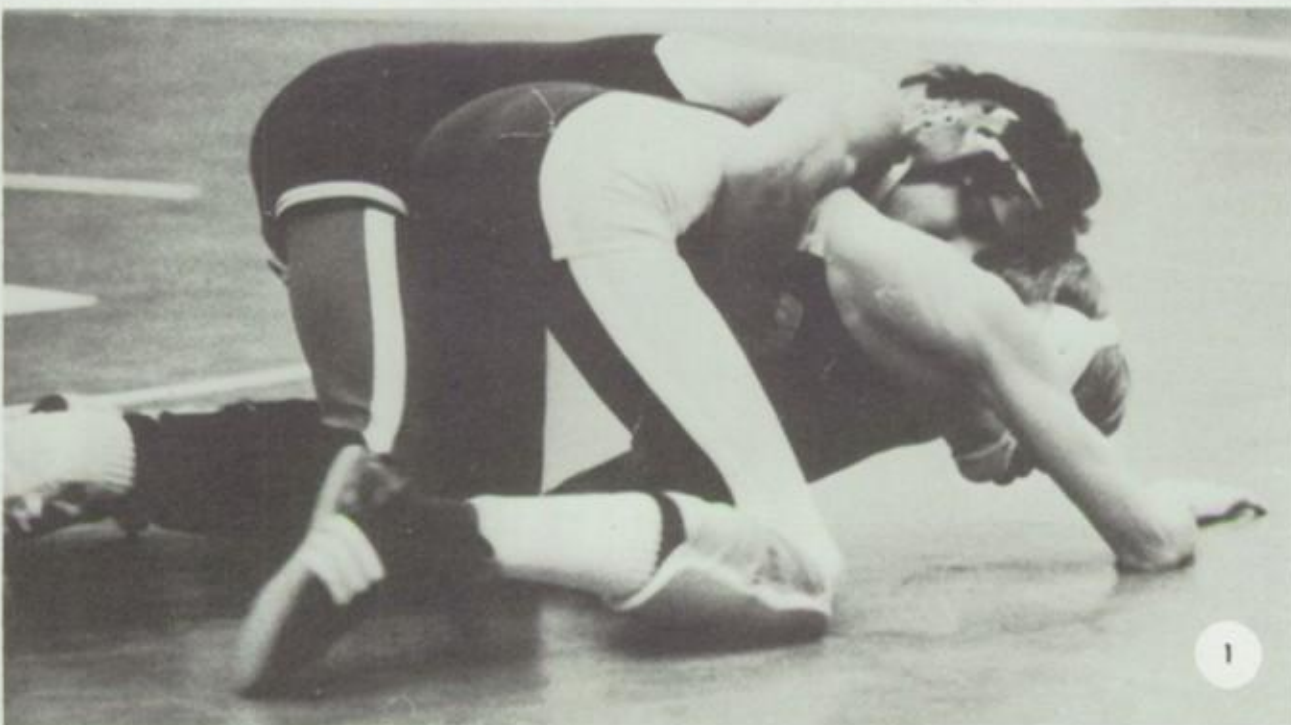

These wrestlers, along with a few others, have an excellent chance of reaching the district this year.

- 1 — Brian Chapman grapples his way to an undefeated season.
- 2 — Struggling to gain an advantage is Tim Lee.
- 3 — Freshman Nick Nomina gains valuable experience as the season advances.
- 4 — John Marshall seizes the upper hand against his opponent.

Reserve wrestlers tune-up for varsity

The FHS reserve wrestling squad, under the direction of Coach Kidwell, grappled to a 2-8 seasonal record.

The team started the year on an up note as they placed second, behind Fremont St. Joe, in the Tiffin Reserve Tournament. Greg Rosales led the Redmen as he finished first in his weight class by pinning all three of his opponents.

Richard Capetillo, Gordie Gray, Tim Lee and Brad Stevens all finished third.

The grapplers' matches were all close victories, but victory would not come their way.

Many of the reserves are expected to move up to the varsity level next year.

1 — Sophomore Greg Rosales struggles to pin his opponent.

2 — Chuck Leonard attempts a takedown.

3 — Marc Lambert signals his pleasure over a victory.

RESERVE WRESTLING:

VARSITY: (row 1) Amy Krumb, Lori Zimmerman, Shelley Lambright, Mrs. Ruth Musgrave; advisor, Carol Lehmann, Cindy Smith, and Kathy Hunt.

RESERVE: (row 2) Liz Jackson, Martha Tolento, Missy Opperman, Dea Zimmerman, Paula Runion, and Jenny Hunker.

FRESHMEN: (row 3) Julie Cook, Kim Darr, and Linda Rosales.

Varsity fall cheerleaders don't let the rain dampen their spirits for homecoming night.

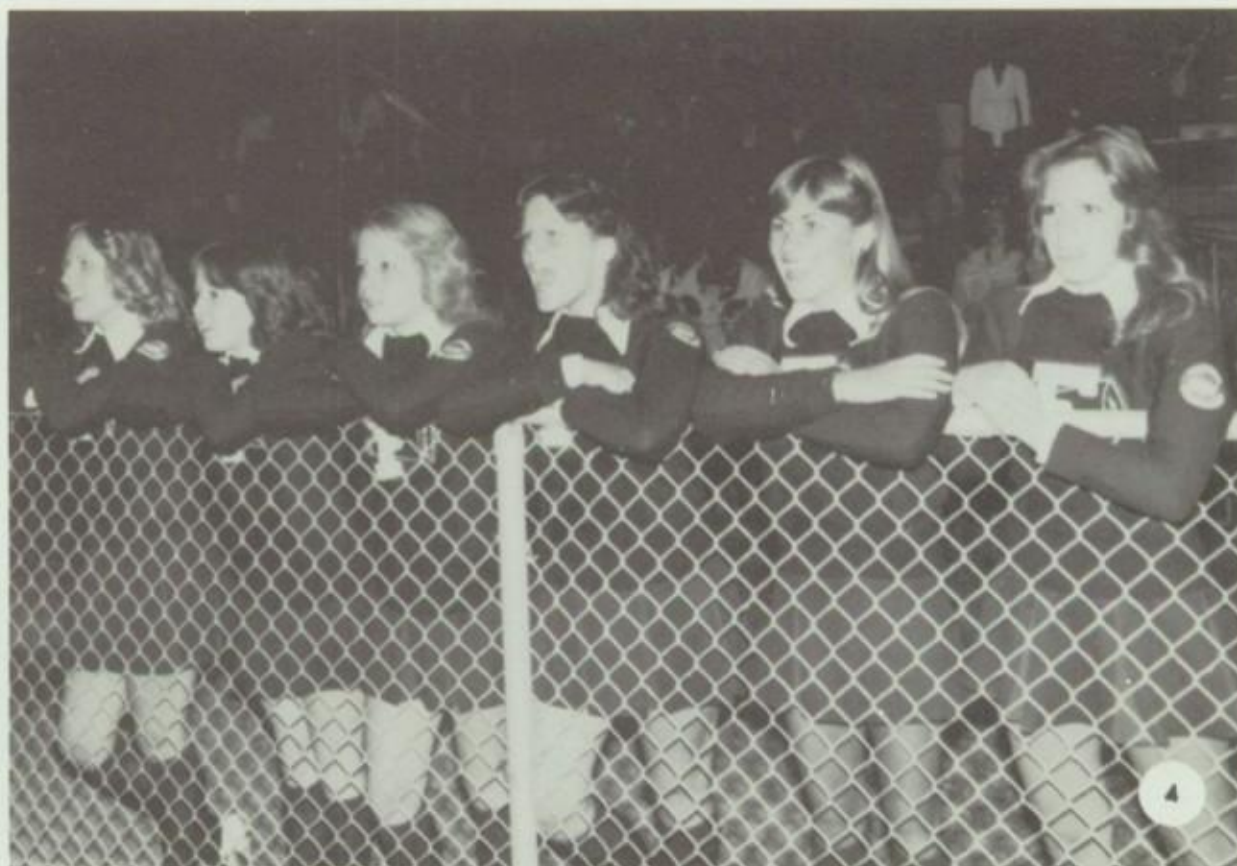

Cindy Smith and Carol Lehmann lead the crowd in a cheer.

During the 1978-79 school year cheerleading took on a new look. Instead of having one squad for the entire year, there were two squads — one for fall sports and one for winter sports.

According to cheerleading advisor, Mrs. Musgrave, the system was implemented to allow more girls to participate in cheerleading. The idea proved to be very beneficial and plans are to continue the system next year.

Both the fall and winter squads did a fine job of promoting school spirit this year. Hours of practice were spent working on new cheers and black light routines. Through the use of many creative and innovative pep rallies and two different spirit weeks, the girls managed to generate enthusiasm throughout the school.

- 1 — Dea Zimmerman cheers her team on to victory.
- 2 — Shelley, Amy, Kathy, and Cindy promote enthusiasm at a pep assembly.
- 3 — Cindy Smith keeps the spirit flowing at an FHS football game.
- 4 — Cheerleaders take time out to watch the game.

Boys' track, GLL, sectional champs

Enjoying a 7-1 duel meet record, the 1978 FHS boys' track team is by far Coach Ted Whit-ed's best. The Redmen capped a fine season by running away with the AA Sectional and GLL track meets.

This marks the second year in a row that Fostoria has been league champs.

The team also placed first in the Fostoria and Whitmer Relays, and the Findlay Invitational. FHS also placed second out of 27 schools at the Blade Relays.

- 1 — The passing of the baton is very important, as shown here by Jeff Latham handing off to Billy Lawson.
2 — Warming up for a league meet is senior Ray Foster.
3 — Senior Tim Stahl is a steady performer for the Redmen in both the discus and the shot put.

Had it not been for sickness during the district meet, the Redmen may have been a serious challenger for the state title. But it was not to be as FHS finished a disappointing 14th.

Chuck Pullom was the lone representative at the state meet, where he placed eighth in the one mile. For this and other numerous accomplishments throughout the year, Chuck was selected by his teammates as MVP.

This year's team has its work cut out for it if it hopes to repeat the 1978 cindermen's accomplishments.

- 1 — Striding to victory once again, in the mile is senior Chuck Pullom.
- 2 — Unleashing a tremendous put is Jeffrey Latham.
- 3 — Senior John Wedge shows us his classic form that has netted him many a victory.

FHS girls' track enjoys winning season

No fewer than nine records fell to the 1978 Girls' track team as they raced to a 4-2 duel meet mark.

Not only did they break records but the girls placed second at the Fostoria Relays and third at the Blade and Tiffin Relays. Fostoria also placed third behind Bowling Green and league champ Bedford in the GLL meet.

The Redmen came in third in both the sectionals and district meets, but advanced Kristy Bogard, Cami Grey, and Betty Jackson to the state meet.

The girls put in a fine showing for themselves as they finished high in the standings.

- 1 — Regina Rumschlag hopes to fill the shoes left by the loss of Betty Jackson.
- 2 — Pleased at making her height is junior Lisa Rinehart.
- 3 — Mary Stevens prepares for a crucial handoff as Kim Fant charges towards her.

Bogard, then a freshman, ran in the hurdles competition and placed third in her heat of the semi-finals. Cami Gray placed 14th in the 440 yard dash. Betty Jackson, making her fourth appearance in Columbus, finished her outstanding career at FHS by taking third in discus and fifth in shot.

Three awards were given last year to the girls. Betty Jackson received MVP; Kristy Bogard won the Rookie's Award; and Mary Stevens was given the Booster Award.

Since 22 lettermen return, the 1979 team should be just as good as last year's.

1 — Making the handoff is senior Kathy Hunt.

2 — Heading for the tape is senior Cami Gray.

3 — Chantay Newman shows us her form as she strides a hurdle.

4 — Posing for the camera is the 440 yard relay team of Kristy Bogard, Kathy Hunt, Kim Fant and Betty Jackson.

Swimming makes a splash at FHS

1 — Mike Bartchlett stretches out with a 300 yard warm-up.
2 — "Swimmers, take your mark, BANG!" Go, David Anderson!

BOYS' SWIM TEAM:

Mike Bartchlett, N. Craig Baldwin, David Anderson.

3 — Dave Rinehart Performs a quick maneuver in the air.
4 — Laurie Riser swiftly glides through the water on the backstroke.

Baseball team suffers defensive lapses

Defensive lapses in the late innings proved to be the FHS varsity baseball team's downfall as they experienced a tough season with a 5-9 record.

The big bats of Brian Chapman, Scott Nye, and Rick Sallisbury kept the team close through most of their games.

Many of the games were decided by a single run, and with a little luck the Redmen could have had a winning season.

Five Redmen players took GLL honors last year. Brian Chapman and Doug Dennison received second team honors as they led the team in hitting and fielding, respectively. Seniors Thom Loomis, Rick Sallisbury, and Kevin Shumaker received honorable mention honors.

Seven lettermen and many talented reserve players are returning in the hopes of a winning season this year.

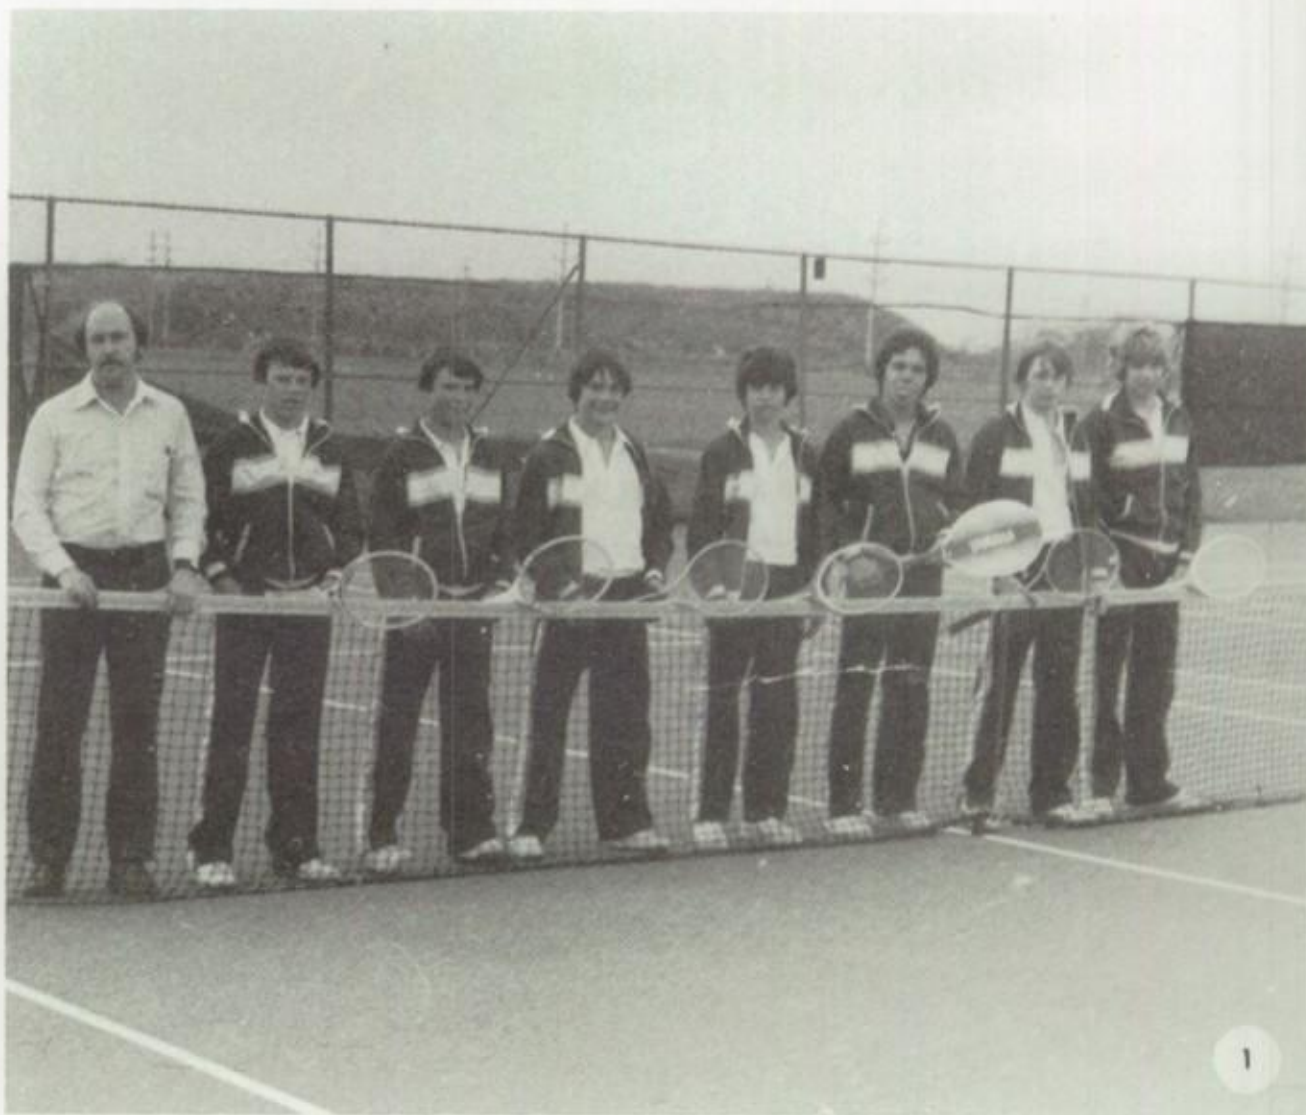

- 1 — VARSITY BASEBALL:
(back row) Coach Steve Russell, Brian Dawson, Joel Swinehart, Rick Sallisbury, Scott Nye, Brian Chapman, Kevin Shumaker, Joe Hoover, Thom Loomis. (front row) Manager Scott Shumaker, Kevin Niswander, Jamie Opperman, Randy Gerritsen, Doug Dennison, Phil Sallisbury, Bart Lombardy, Gregg Morgan, and Manager Tom Dyer.
- 2 — Junior Kevin Niswander is just one of the lettermen returning this year.
- 3 — Phil Sallisbury is expected to be an outstanding outfielder this year.
- 4 — Junior Scott Nye is expected to lead the Redmen pitching corps.

With the return of six lettermen, the FHS tennis team expects to improve its 2-7 record.

Seniors Mike Krupp, Bob Lewe, and Jeff Mortimer are expected to fight it out for the No. 1 singles spot, vacated by the loss of Bob Holderman. Sophomores Brian and Bruce Barringer, along with Dan Boff are expected to see a lot of doubles action this year.

Under the leadership of Coach Fox, the 1979 netters will seek to improve the fifth place finish in the GLL tournament achieved by the 1978 squad. With the return of the above six lettermen this is not beyond the realm of possibility.

FHS netters seek to improve record

1 — 1978 VARSITY TENNIS:

Coach John Fox, Bruce Barringer, Brian Barringer, Dan Boff, Bob Lewe, Bob Holderman, Brian Heiser, and Mike Krupp.

2 — Bruce Barringer appears to be a strong hopeful for the 1979 season.

3 — Practicing his backhand is sophomore Brian Barringer.

4 — Dan Boff hopes to step into a doubles spot this year.

Barefoot in the Park delights audience

The FHS drama department presented Neil Simon's hit comedy, Barefoot in the Park, on the 17th and 18th of last November.

The actors in the play were Greg Horner and Cheri Madson, portraying a newlywed couple and their conflict; Janel Gorrill as the mother; and Chris Hayes as a nearby neighbor. The supporting cast included Carrie Smith, a telephone repair person; and David Shoub, a deliveryman.

The actors got along well under the direction of Lora Jean Bell, assistant director; David Adams, technical director; and Mr. Doug Wood was the director of the play.

- 1 — Lora Bell captures the audience's attention.
- 2 — Janel Gorrill finds it challenging to climb six flights of stairs to Carrie Butler's new apartment, as played by Cheri Madson.
- 3 — Greg Horner as Paul Bratter seems to be affected by his late night partying.
- 4 — Chris Hayes as "Bluebeard of 48th Street" enjoys shocking his audience with his unusual habits.
- 5 — A sorrowful Greg Horner recounts his latest woe to Janel Gorrill.

Richard Tate, Lisa Lake, Tom Palmerton, Carrie Smith and Barry Vitt presented the One Act Play.

- 4 — Linda McCarley and Jackie Elsea audition for the parts of Fostoria's Laverne and Shirley.
- 5 — Sophomore Debbie Houston does her part for spirit week.
- 6 — Meg Eynon and Jean Foust demonstrate that class spirit is a friendly competition.
- 7 — Brenda Horner and Brenda Hernandez aren't just anybody's baby.
- 8 — Santa's workshop, created by the freshmen, added support in their quest for the spirit week.
- 9 — "Would a teacher in the 50's give a test this hard?" wonders Laurie Mortimer.
- 10 — Ed Cornell doesn't seem to have accomplished the fine art of putting on a dress.

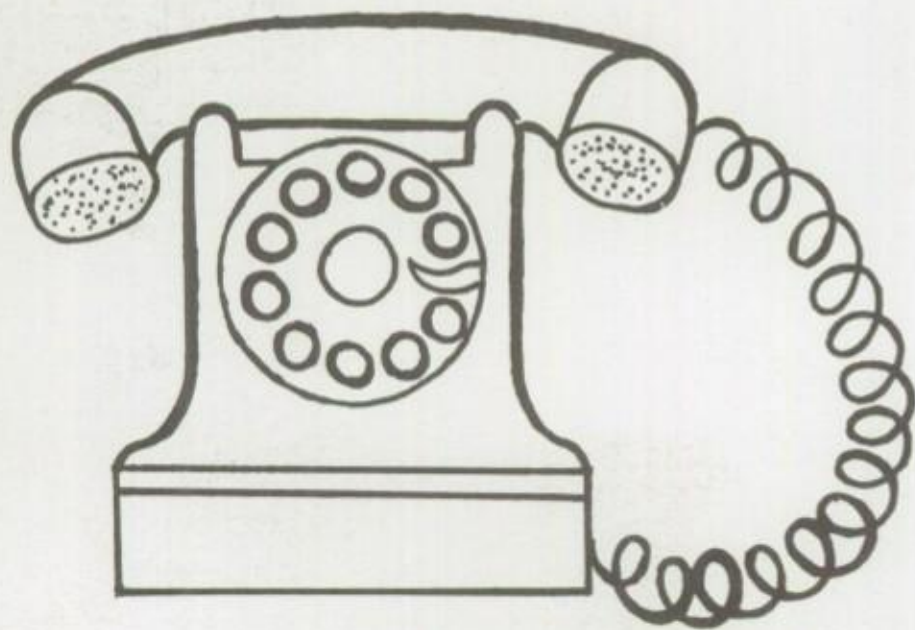

Holiday excitement spread throughout the school as FHS students celebrated another spirit week during basketball season.

The first day of spirit week brought babies running around the halls in full force with the second bringing the 50's back into view. Insideout day presented some very uncomfortable situations. Sweats and hair-do day seemed to be the most comfortable day for the students. The final day of spirit week presented the most popular craze of the season: discoing!

Beginners luck brought the freshmen their first recognition by winning the coveted spirit stick.

The long awaited call

The date is February 31, 1979 and we find ourselves observing an FHS guy on a typically dull, boring Sunday afternoon. He is sitting at the desk of his all-American home and he seems to be deep in thought . . . What can I do? . . . who can I call? . . . oh yea! what about that cute girl in my fourth period class? . . . well, maybe I shouldn't call . . . she might not want to go out with me . . . maybe she's not home . . . at least I can say I tried . . . well, here it goes . . . Hi! remember me? . . . yes . . . ahh, how would you like to do something with me this afternoon?

Well . . . I don't know. I'll have to check and see . . . oh, I hope she can . . . She probably already has something to do . . . sure hope she doesn't . . . yes, I'd like to, about what time? . . . oh, great, how about 3:00? . . . that will be super . . . see you then . . . O.K., bye . . . bye . . . Oh! WOW!!! she can go . . . I don't believe it; she's going out with me . . . He finally called, GET DOWN . . . Well, I guess I better start getting ready . . . sure hope my hair looks O.K., maybe I should change clothes . . . I finally get to go out with him . . . WOW . . . It's going to be a Blast!

Gong Show comes to FHS

- 1 — Janel Gorrill, as mistress of ceremonies, attempts a little humor in her introduction of the next act.
- 2 — Steve Lehmann perfects the "talent" of pie throwing before the gong.
- 3 — A motley Pep Band receives the gong before the completion of their version of "Bill Bailey."
- 4 — Scott George demonstrates that there's no such thing as an innocent victim.
- 5 — The news team wonders if Walter Cronkite ever had this much fun.

- 1 — Juniors Lynn Swartz and Jacquie Pierce put finishing touches on their float.
- 2 — Redmen enter the field with a victory close at hand.
- 3 — Fred Flinstone helps the sophomores display their spirit.
- 4 — Coach Kidwell watches the actions of his players.
- 5 — Freshmen display their spirit with the character Road Runner.
- 6 — 1978 HOMECOMING COURT:
Margie Leal, Tom Hiatt, Kathi Bartunek, Chuck Pullom, Cami Gray, Fred Hunt, Lori Zimmerman, Brian Chapman, Janet Hirt, Gregg Morgan, Jenny Hunker and Mike Grine.
- 7 — Varsity football cheerleaders urge the crowd on.
- 8 — Experience and hard work prevailed as the seniors won the float competition.

Rain tried to dampen spirits, but was unsuccessful as the Redmen team went on to beat Lima Shawnee at this year's homecoming.

Escorted onto the field by their attendants, the girls awaited the moment for the announcement of this year's royalty. Joyful cries came from the audience as Fred Hunt and Cami Gray were announced as our 1978 king and queen.

Floats took on the theme "Redmen Catch Saturday Morning Fever!" Seniors used the character Fat Albert quoting, "Hey, Hey, Hey, Seniors say, 'Squash Lima' ". Juniors tried to "Catch 'em In Our Web." "Crush 'em Redmen," featuring Fred Flinstone, was created by the sophomore class. The freshman class constructed a float with the road-runner saying, "Catch Us If You Can!"

Celebrating continued after the game as students enjoyed the music of J.B. Sound Co. in the gym.

The musical "Camelot" was the first major production for both music director William Schwepe and stage director Doug Wood. With the combined efforts of both choirs, much work and determination prevailed, in anticipation of the opening night of April 6.

Costumes, popcorn highlight

- 1 — Winston Smith (alias, Mr. Hite) believes his number is up.
- 2 — Raggedy Ann Orlandi and Wicked Witch of the West Brandeberry directed the fun-filled week of activities.
- 3 — Pancho Villa Zaruba seems to have lost her sidekick.
- 4 — Mrs. Orlandi introduces students to the joys of reading.
- 5 — "Frankly, Scarlett (Grimm), I don't care if we don't get to English today," comments Rhett (Haddix).
- 6 — Jeri Warman, Laruene Hutchisson and Mark Hoffman listen to faculty members share their favorite books.
- 7 — With popcorn selling for only ten cents a bag, Joe Urquhart and Lisa Miller couldn't resist the temptation to "be corny and read!"

"Right to Read Week"

Prior to the week of February 11-19, students would have said, "National Right to Read Week, what's that?" Under the direction of Mrs. Orlandi, FHS students and faculty participated in what turned out to be an entertaining and educational week.

The week lifted off with balloons and a sustained reading period of fifteen minutes. Tuesday some students and teachers dressed up as their favorite literary characters. Wednesday brought food for thought as well as body when students and teachers met in the library to eat lunch and discuss their favorite books. Students swapped both paperbacks and hardbacks on Thursday. Things were popping by Friday, and Fohilib sold popcorn for ten cents a bag.

Winners of literary day were also announced on Friday. Left Mr. Eynon (Robert Service) and Mrs. Fruth (Merlin) shared top honors for their portrayals.

SUPER

An ideal day in the life of an FHS student begins by waking up to the music of his favorite singer Linda Ronstadt or Bob Seger. Next, he jumps into his Trans Am, not forgetting that it's reading day in English and he must bring his book "Jaws." After an easy morning he sits in lunch with his friends digesting his food to the beat of Foreigner, "Double Vision." As he sits in study hall deciding what his plans for the weekend will be, he decides that Friday evening will be spent at his best friend's party. Saturday night he will take a girl he's been wanting to go out with for months to see the movie, "Up in Smoke." After a long, hard day at school he is glad to be home watching his favorite television show, "Mork and Mindy." As he lies in bed he thinks to himself, "My what a super fine day it's been!"

FACULTY

FACULTY PROFILE

Teachers . . . you saw them 184 days during the year, but how well did you know them? For instance, did you realize that they averaged ten years of teaching at FHS and averaged 13 years of total teaching experience? They are smart . . . as 45% have degrees beyond the Bachelor's degree. While walking down the hall did you notice all the male teachers? They outnumber the women 3-1. Eighty percent of the teachers are married. Our teachers know what is happening in and around the school . . . for 48% are involved in other school activities, and 75% live in the Fostoria area. Our teachers are articulate as well. We asked them what their hobbies are, how their philosophy of education has changed, what their goals in life are, and what kind of work, aside from teaching, they had done. We found their ideas enlightening and as varied as our rainbow. We think you will, too . . .

THE SEARCH

I went to find the pot of gold
That's waiting where the rainbow ends.
I searched and searched and searched and searched
And searched and searched, and then —
There it was, deep in the grass,
Under an old and twisty bough.
It's mine, it's mine, it's mine at last . . .
What do I search for now?

A lot of people who asked me if I were frightened to come over here alone were astonished when I answered "no." But I was too excited and too curious to be anxious. Although I had prepared for the United States, there were still many things I never would have imagined before.

For example, I found myself in a store packing our groceries, as I was use to doing at home, until I noticed the astonished look on my mom's face. She told me that it wasn't necessary and would be taken care of by a special grocery packer who would take them out to the car.

Some of the first impressions I got were that Americans can't live without a car or McDonald's, that there's a church at nearly every street corner, and that the bread is so soft you sink all the way through it, if you only touch it.

The first time I got a glance at the inside of the school I was very impressed and was even more so after being guided through all the class rooms. I had never seen such a beautiful school before which had so much modern equipment and offered so many opportunities. But the most amazing and strange thing at school was the first pep-rally. I walked into the gymnasium expecting just a little bit of music and a speech about the season so far. I couldn't believe it when all of a sudden people were standing up, holding signs, raising their arms, and yelling, "GLL" or "SENIORS." supported by the band and cheerleaders. It was even harder to imagine that the class that made the most noise or showed the most spirit got a prize!

For Christmas I received a picture which says, "America, I love you," and I think that it fits because I see myself adopting and accepting more and more American habits and I'm sure I'll miss a lot of these.

I want to thank the students and teachers at school and expecially my American family for making this year so nice for me.

- 1 — One of the many unique experiences for Sonja in the U.S., was learning about pioneer days at Cedar Point.
- 2 — As a little girl in Dassel, Germany, on her first day at school, carrying her sugar bag, she never heard of America, let alone Fostoria, Ohio.
- 3 — At a family gathering Sonja enjoys munching on an ear of corn for the first time.
- 4 — Sonja found our Christmas Eve quite an exciting experience.

Each day is a page of life. There are stories on these pages that are inside of us and before us, those that we tell or wish to tell and those that remain private. We are on a walk, a creative, meaningful walk through these pages. Each new step along the walk is the most critical and decisive one, for each provides the preparation and foundation of life.

As you travel through the many pages of the 1979 FOHRAB, upon our mystical rainbow, both of us hope that it will bring back colorful memories of these hours.

Seniors will never forget finally winning the homecoming float competition and spirit stick or the day government class had a guest lecturer — Robert Service Eynon. Juniors probably won't soon forget the ups and downs of American Studies, or the difficulties of launching the prom theme, "Come Sail Away." Sophomores are probably still counting the money they made from lollipop sales. Freshmen can look with pride to their accomplishments — enduring high school initiation and winning the winter spirit stick. Although we did not experience our finest hour in athletics, the cross country team will remember an outstanding year and a second trip to Columbus for the state meet. Individuals in track also had significant achievements.

All of us, however, have some collective moments we have shared . . . the patriotic navy band sponsored by student council . . . the foreign flavor added by exchange students from Brazil and Germany . . . the band featuring a new hand routine . . . disco dancing reaching an all-time high in popularity . . . new hangouts to enjoy — Hardee's, Fisch's, and the Cuckoo's Nest . . . two different squads of cheerleaders and two spirit weeks . . . National Right to Read Week when things were a little "corny" . . . FETV produced by the TV crew . . . the gong show . . . Camelot . . . Honors' Day Breakfast.

May these and other memories of your golden days of high school life unite with the future as you seek new rainbows along life's journey.

Mayla
